

‘Designed for practitioners and mental health workers, as well as students training to be mental health workers, I am confident that the publication of Working Together: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Mental Health and Wellbeing Principles and Practice marks a watershed in the treatment of Indigenous mental health issues.’

Tom Calma

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Social Justice Commissioner

‘Embracing the principles and practices in this textbook will help the health workforce play its part in achieving the commitment by the Australian Government and the state and territory governments to closing the life expectancy gap between Indigenous and non-Indigenous Australians within a generation.’

The Hon Warren Snowdon MP

Minister for Indigenous Health, Rural and Regional Health & Regional Services Delivery

Working Together: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Mental Health and Wellbeing Principles and Practice was funded by the Office for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Health, Australian Government Department of Health and Ageing, and was developed by the Australian Council for Educational Research and the Kulunga Research Network, Telethon Institute for Child Health Research.
