

Jackie Goldfinch
Personal Assistant to Manager, Kulunga Research Network
Telethon Institute for Child Health Research

Jackie was recruited to the Kulunga Research Network from the Administration and Corporate Services Division within the Telethon Institute for Child Health Research, where she worked for the past 8 years as the Administration Secretary for the Population Sciences Division.

She has an extensive background in administrative service duties, having previously worked for the building and construction industry, the mining industry and an accounting firm.

Jackie recently become an Australian Citizen and now officially calls Australia home.